The project focuses the sustainable development of biologics, with the intention of being a reference innovation and sustainability. It will include CE certification, green building, water and energy efficient systems, solar energy and abatement of added value from.

The second complex of research and production of vaccines has 25,000m² and is located in the Zona Franca. The distribution of buildings was defined by the floor of production, circulation of people and materials, control of contamination and operations of investigations. The manufacturing area may receive API for various vaccines, and the research and API production will be dedicated to COVID-19.